

Books2Africa Impact Report

City of mercy Christian academy, Nigeria

Section A - Impact Report Questions and Photos

1. Tell us about yourself

my name is Veronica Edeki and i am the school administrator of City of mercy academy, my favourite book is i love you forever by Robert Munsch

2. Tell us about your project?

City of mercy children library, reading club, and writing, my mission is to get every child to read with understanding, to be an intentional reader and at the same time have fun while reading, what makes my project different from others is we engage the students, we make them see the beauty in reading rather than see reading as a punishment.

3. Tell us about your book collection or library before you found out about Books2Africa.

i used to get books from Lagos which was tedious and expensive, because of that we had limited collections due to cost and distance, i need these books because it gives me opportunity to have more variety of books for children to access.

4. What materials have your received from Books2Africa and how do you feel about the quantity, quality and types of materials received?

we have received a large number of children books which among has a distinct number of mathematics which helped the students in numeracy and calculation. the books have a top notch quality which can be overemphasized.

5. What do you think the impact of the donated materials received has been/will be?

a total number of 400 pupils and 10 teachers will benefit from this and these books will be beneficial for both tutors and the pupils, for the tutors, it will be as a resource material for research and teaching purposes and for the pupils it will enable them have access to more reading materials and research for their home activities.

Acknowledgements

i want to appreciate the Carmela and Ronnie Pignatelli foundation for this generous donation through Books2Africa, our prayers is for God to replenish them more and more, and this books will go a long way for the students.
