

Books2Africa Impact Report

Woodford School Library Books Project, Zambia

Section A - Impact Report Questions and Photos

1. Tell us about yourself

My name is Samuel Lungu, Chief Academic Officer for Rhodes Park Schools Group, where Woodford School Lusaka is a member. My favourite book from the consignment is the Jessame Stories.

2. Tell us about your project?

The project's name is the Woodford Books Project. Our mission is to improve the quality and variety of the collection of books in our primary school and early learning library. What makes this special is that we target books that support our core and supplementary reading programmes.

3. Tell us about your book collection or library before you found out about Books2Africa.

We discovered Books2Africa through a Google search.

4. What materials have you received from Books2Africa and how do you feel about the quantity, quality and types of materials received?

We are very pleased with the quantity and quality of books we got. 4590 was the total that came on the pallet, and they are all of excellent quality.

5. What do you think the impact of the donated materials received has been/will be?

The books received will benefit over 450 students and staff at Woodford School each year.
