

TAS 2026 CATALOGUE

Books2Africa

Educating people and protecting the environment

Books2Africa is a UK-registered charity (1152599) founded in 2012 whose mission is to improve access to education and promote environmental sustainability through the redistribution of books and computers that reduce waste and empower people to achieve their full potential.

www.books2africa.org

4,275,950

Books Shipped

500

Computers Shipped

Promoting African voices on a global stage

The Africa Stand (TAS) is a Books2Africa programme dedicated to producing and promoting books that advance African and diaspora voices, stories, and perspectives in global publishing. We welcome contributions from authors of all backgrounds.

www.books2africa.org/theafricastand

Our Categories

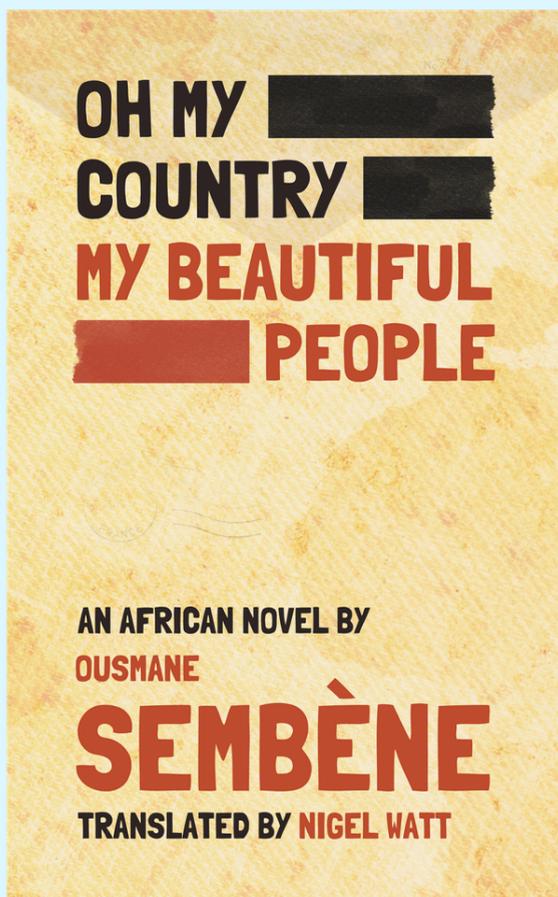

Tales, Fiction & Poetry

Biography & Memoir

African History

Culture, Society & Ideas

Kids & Teens

Tales, Fiction
& Poetry

Oh My Country My Beautiful People

Ousmane Sembène

In Sembène's early novel, Oumar Faye returns to Senegal after the war, facing tension between his dreams of independence, family expectations, and colonial legacies. books2africa.org/publishing

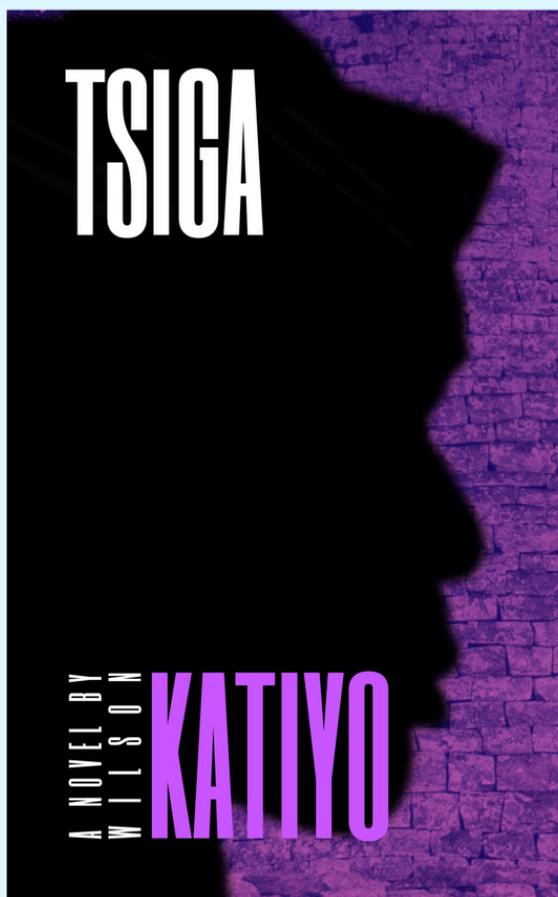

A Son Of The Soil

Wilson Katiyo

A Son of the Soil is Wilson Katiyo's powerful debut novel, first published in 1976 and widely read across Zimbabwe and internationally.

books2africa.org/publishing

Tales,
Fiction
& Poetry

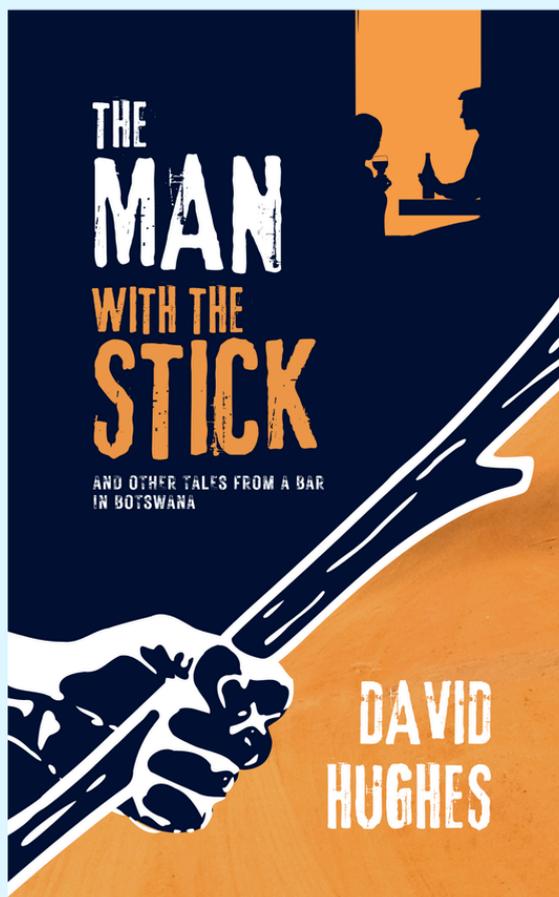

Tales,
Fiction
& Poetry

Tsigá Wilson Katiyo

Tsigá is Wilson Katiyo's posthumous novel about a disillusioned former freedom fighter in independent Zimbabwe, grappling with betrayal, memory, and societal change.

books2africa.org/publishing

Tales,
Fiction
& Poetry

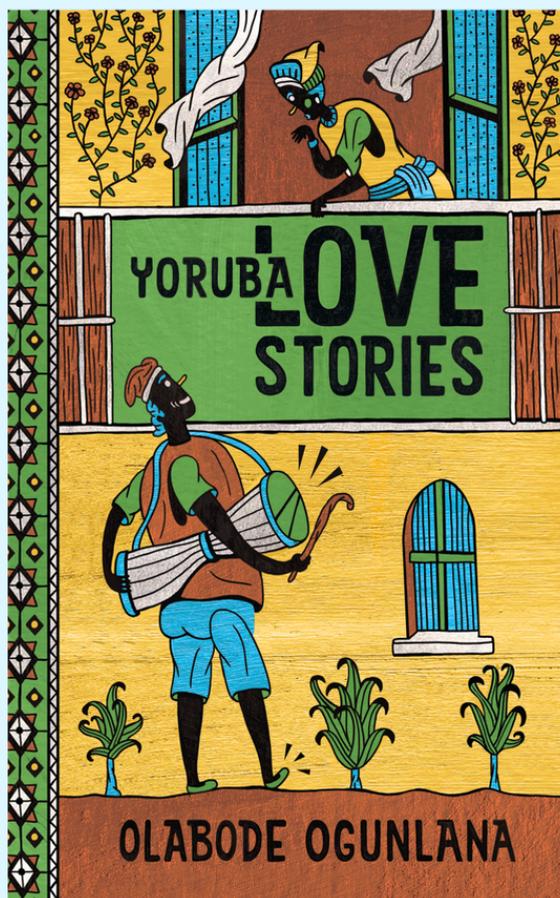

The Man With The Stick

David Hughes

These short stories depict life in a Botswana village bar where humour and hardship meet.

Through vivid characters, David Hughes explores belonging, exile and fragile dignity.

books2africa.org/publishing

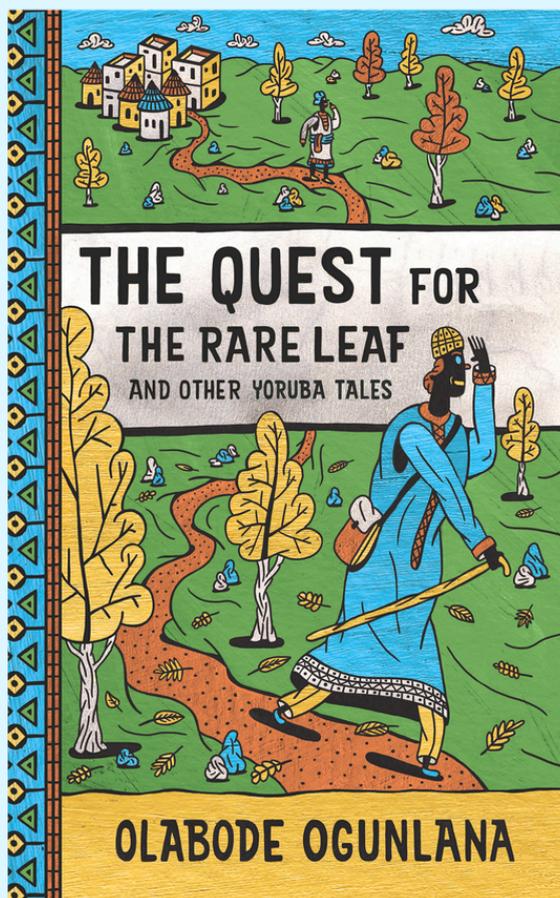

Yoruba Love Stories

Olabode Ogunlana

Olaborde Ogunlana's tales blend Yoruba folklore with modern life, exploring love, passion, jealousy, and redemption through unforgettable characters.
books2africa.org/publishing

Tales,
Fiction
& Poetry

Tales, Fiction
& Poetry

The Quest For The Rare Leaf Olabode Ogunlana

Olabode Ogunlana's collection preserves the rich tradition of Yoruba oral storytelling, blending myth, wisdom, and proverbs to bring ancient tales to life.

books2africa.org/publishing

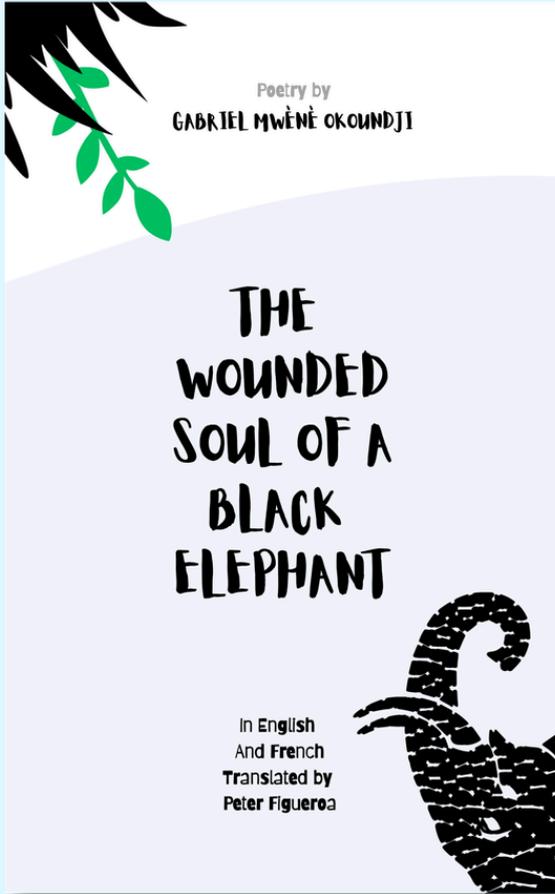

Tales,
Fiction
& Poetry

A Prayer To The Ancestors Gabriel Mwènè Okoundji

In these haunting poems, Gabriel Mwènè Okoundji explores grief, memory, and the call of the ancestors, giving voice to a wounded soul seeking meaning and resilience.

books2africa.org/publishing

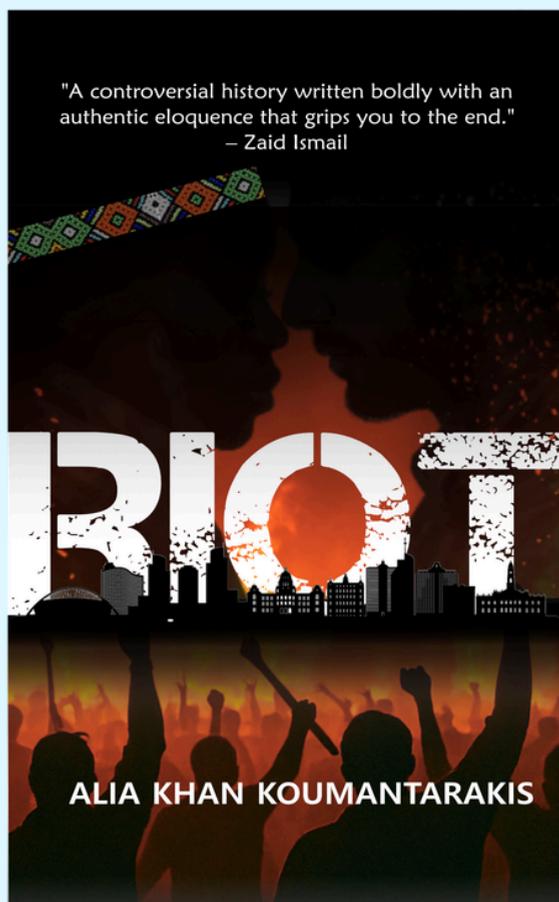

Tales,
Fiction
& Poetry

The Wounded Soul Of A Black Elephant Gabriel Mwènè Okoundji

Through rich metaphor and ancestral imagery, Gabriel Mwènè Okoundji's poems journey through loss, heritage, and the search for meaning at the crossroads of memory and exile.

books2africa.org/publishing

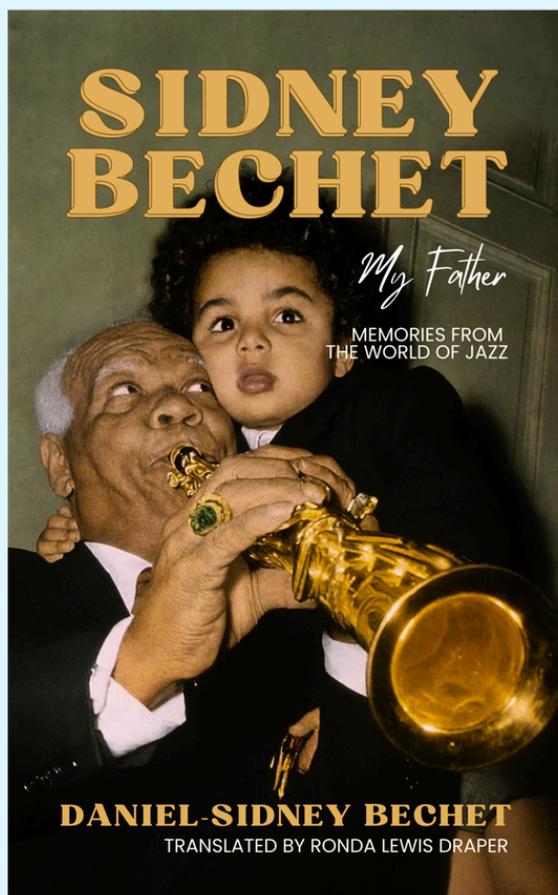

Tales,
Fiction
& Poetry

RIOT

Alia Khan Koumantarakis

RIOT is a historical fiction novel set during Durban's 1949 Riots, told through the perspective of a young filmmaker, blending love, survival, and memory into a compelling narrative of resilience.

www.riot1949.com

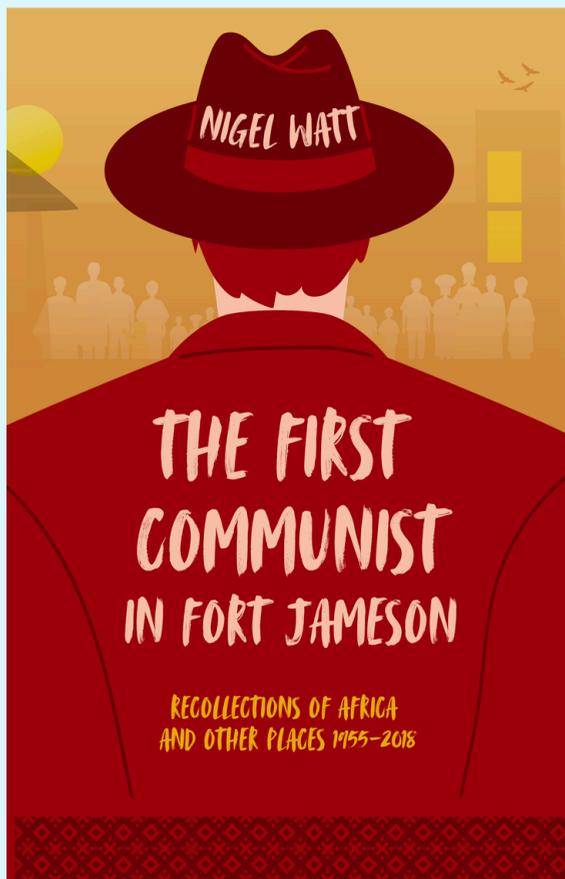

Sidney Bechet, My Father

Daniel Sidney Bechet

In this memoir, Daniel-Sidney Bechet recounts the extraordinary life of his father, jazz pioneer Sidney Bechet, whose sound transformed the soprano saxophone and spread New Orleans jazz globally.

books2africa.org/publishing

Biography & Memoir

Biography & Memoir

The First Communist In Fort Jameson Nigel Watt

Nigel Watt's memoir reflects on six decades of working across Africa, witnessing decolonisation and development. His story blends personal engagement with Africa's political transformations.

books2africa.org/publishing

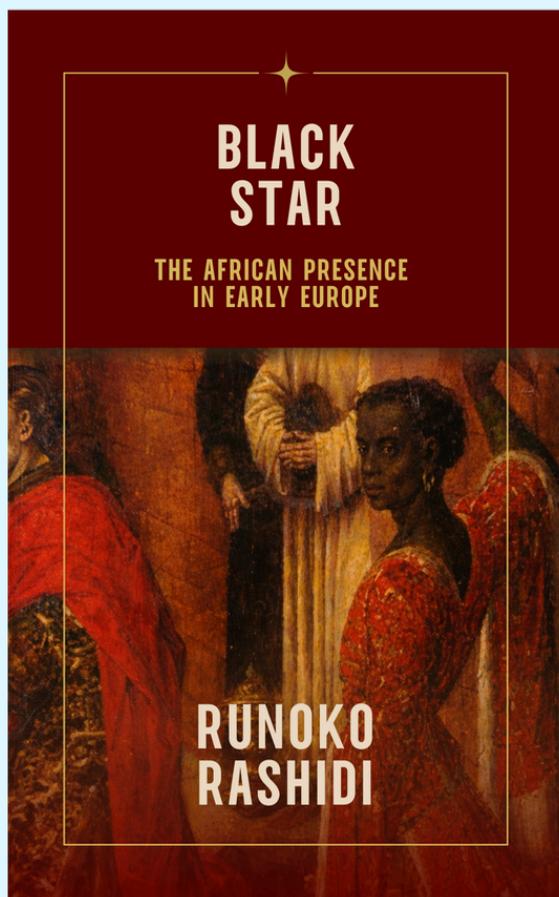

African Star Over Asia

Runoko Rashidi

Runoko Rashidi's groundbreaking work explores Africa's deep historical connections with Asia, from prehistoric migrations to the era of enslavement.

books2africa.org/publishing

African History

Black Star Runoko Rashidi

In Black Star, Runoko Rashidi traces the global legacy of African people, challenging narrow historical narratives and celebrating their cultural achievements and resilience.

books2africa.org/publishing

African History

Uncovering The African Past Runoko Rashidi

In this tribute to Ivan Van Sertima, Runoko Rashidi revisits African history, challenging racial myths and affirming Africa's central role in shaping global civilisation.

books2africa.org/publishing

African History

GÉRALD BERTHOUD

THE ATEN OF GANAWURI

A SOCIO-POLITICAL HISTORY OF ETHNIC MINORITIES IN PLATEAU
STATE, NIGERIA

African History

The Aten Of Ganawuri Gérald Berthoud

This book reconstructs the pre-colonial Aten institutions, challenging colonial views, while documenting the radical changes in daily life and the resilience of tradition in the face of Western influence.

books2africa.org/publishing

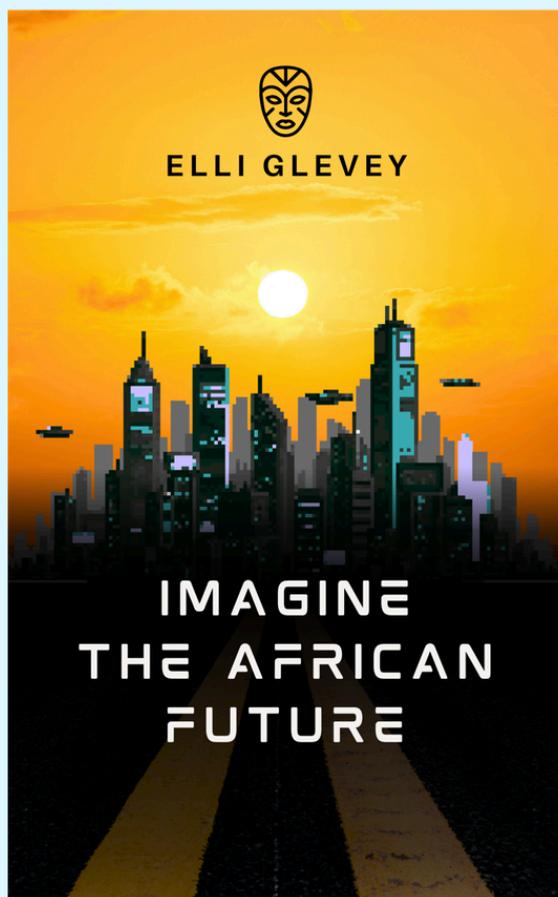

Lessons From The Life Of A Salesman

John Theodore

In Salesmanship, John Theodore emphasizes that success is built on relationships, understanding, and character, drawing from his experiences in sales, mentorship, and family life.

books2africa.org/publishing

Imagine The African Future

Elli Glevey

Imagine the African Future explores Africa's challenges and potential, calling for unity, accountability, and visionary leadership to harness its resources and youthful population.

books2africa.org/publishing

Culture
Society
& Ideas

TOWARDS A UNIVERSAL COMPREHENSION OF GOD

Science, Religion, Mysticism and Prayer

MOYILA NGONDA

Culture
Society
& Ideas

Towards A Universal Comprehension Of God Moyila Ngonda

Towards a Universal Comprehension of God by Moyila Ngonda blends science, religion, and mysticism to explore the cosmos, divine purpose, and humanity's spiritual journey.

books2africa.org/publishing

AFROPOLITANISM US AND THE BLACK BLOGOSPHERE

CHRISTELLE KEDI

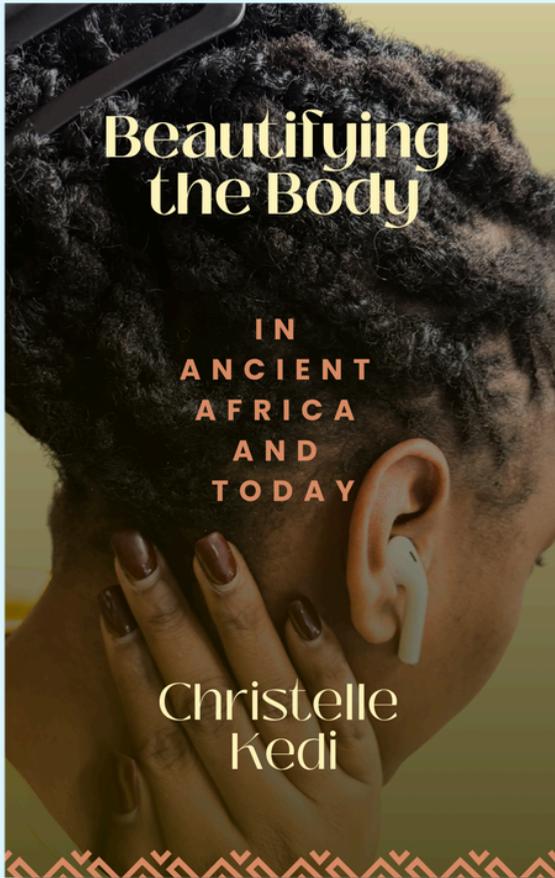

Culture
Society
& Ideas

Afropolitanism And The Black Blogosphere Christelle Kedi

Afropolitanism explores the rise of Black influencers shaping European culture, blending fashion, identity, migration, and digital media to redefine Black European visibility.

books2africa.org/publishing

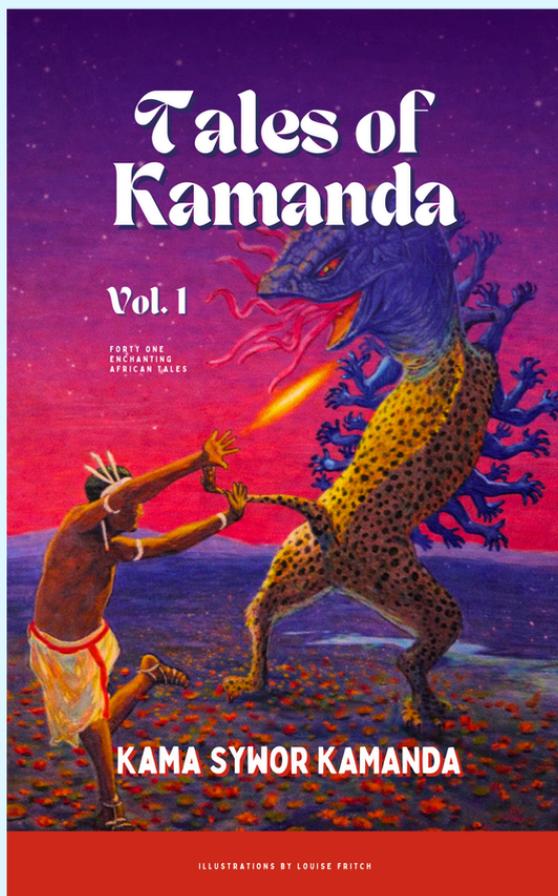

Beautifying the African body Christelle Kedi

Christelle Kedi's study traces the cultural, spiritual, and aesthetic significance of body adornment across Africa and the diaspora, from ancient Nubia to contemporary beauty practices.

books2africa.org/publishing

Culture
Society & Ideas

Tales Of Kamanda Vol. 1 Kama Sywor Kamanda

In this captivating collection, Kamanda's tales transport readers to magical kingdoms filled with adventure, courage, and wisdom, drawing on Africa's rich storytelling traditions.
books2africa.org/publishing

Kids
& Teens

Amana: The Child Who Was A God

Kama Sywor Kamanda

In ancient Nubia, a child destined for greatness rises to become a fearless warrior chosen to unite a divided Egypt in this epic tale of courage, destiny, and faith.

books2africa.org/publishing

Kids & Teens

Kids
& Teens

Prince Muntu

Kama Sywor Kamanda

When Prince Muntu travels from Africa to win the hand of the Queen of the Rising Sun, he must face impossible trials that reveal true nobility lies in courage, wisdom, and compassion.

books2africa.org/publishing

My Hair Grows Like A Tree Tamika Phillip

A beautifully illustrated book inviting young readers to see their hair as a living connection to nature, celebrating identity, heritage, and self-love.

books2africa.org/publishing

Kids & Teens

Thank You